Stars Of World Tennis (World Tennis Legends)

Synopsis

You may recognize these names—Maria Sharapova and Serena Williams, Novak Djokovic and Roger Federer—as the best tennis players in the world. But how did they get their start? What were the challenges they faced, and who helped them along the way? In this colorful and entertaining book, learn about your favorite players and discover how they became the best of the best. With vivid action shots and biographies of more than 20 men and women competing today, this book offers a super-group survey with fascinating facts, action-packed photos, and the latest statistics.
