Nice to be able to give my son a book that has no zombies, shooting or any video game related content. A book about kids getting outside and playing. Doing something that he does in his life. Things that he can relate to. Can't wait to get the whole series.

Please note that "Play Ball" is the first book in the series - the header that has on the site is incorrect. The books in order are: Play Ball District Doubleheader State Showdown Perfect Game World Series I had purchased District Doubleheader thinking it was the first book in the series but didn't realize that it was the second book until I received it in the mail. So now I'm back to purchase the first book so my son can start reading. He is very excited about these books.

My son loves these books. He's read the first two and has already asked me to pre-order the third. Is anyone else wondering who wrote them? The author's biography says he died in 1997. Just curious!

Our 12 year old son has enjoyed reading this book. This is his 3rd year as a All-Star player in Little League. Anything that has to do with baseball he enjoys!! Great book. He went to the mailbox everyday waiting for book to come! Will buy more books from the seller!!

My ten year old son could no wait for this book to arrive! He was thrilled that I had pre-ordered it on and read it as soon as it arrived. As soon as he was done he asks when will the next one be out!

It is a great book because it can really help you get excited for baseball. It will also make you want to play baseball..

This is a great book it is about cousins who make it to the little league baseball world series. Then something really sad comes up yet they try to survive. You will love this book

I've never read one of the series but my 3rd (now 4th) grader can't put them down. Obviously for the boy that likes sports.
