This book is an easy read and has many practical applications. It uses a great deal of scripture to establish a Biblical precedent for supernatural phenomena. The chapters are fairly short, and most of them end with an "Activation" activity that allows the reader to stop and apply what has been learned. I highly recommend this book for all who desire to develop ears that hear, eyes that see, and a heart that understands!

This is a great book! It is not mystical or spooky. It is a practical discussion of what is missing from modern day Christianity. We read great stories of faith, healing and prophecy in the bible only to find these missing from today's modern day churches. Did we become Christ followers to have a Sunday routine or to see and experience the real power of God's Love? This book will give you some things to think about. Perhaps our scientific approach to life does not fit the approach we need to use when seeking God. Read the book...

I bought this as a gift for my wife and she said that she liked it. It brought confirmation about somethings she had already experienced, added new information and the activations at the end of each chapter were practical, and helpful. It didn't hurt that it was an easy to read book either.

The School of the Seers: A Practical Guide on How to See in the Unseen Realm. Most of us are fully aware of the five fold ministry gifts in which the prophet is mentioned and have somewhat of an understanding of the functional role within that calling. Jonathan Welton, in his book The School Of The Seers, wants to bring you into additional awareness of how seers function and the increasing role they will play in this end time harvest. Anyone desiring to grow in the prophetic/ seer realm will welcome this information that took the author seven careful years of study before releasing. If you operate more from visions and dreams than audible words the seer gift is working and functions at a high level of discerning of spirits. Jonathan Welton believes faith needs to be activated for the gift to function and he will provide four practical keys that build faith. Additionally he shares from his experiences practical examples of discerning the four types of spirits- holy spirit, heavenly spirit, human spirit, and demonic spirit. The basis he believes in discerning of spirits is that it operate through love. He provides five filters that help us understand what our discernment is telling us and common things that distort discernment. He believes once your spiritual eyes are open you should be able to discern the spiritual roots of diseases, things in a persons past, and/ or the presence of demonic spirits. The section on angels will answer the questions of whether they have gender and what it means when Jesus says we will be like the angels. He will bring light to the common debate of whether we are made higher or lower than the angels. The stories Jonathan shares will spark your appetite to believe strongly in the supernatural realm. The spirit of the Lord moves as He wills and you will discover as you meditate and practice these principles that, out of His favor toward you, He will entrust you with secrets and you will glory in awe of how your discernment and the happenings around you will unveil. The authors heart for us is that we will continue to press on from glory to glory despite persecution and hardship that will follow the blessings. Our reward, he believes, from endurance and persistence, will be more revelation.

This book was awesome!! Since reading it my eyes and ears have been opened. The activations are powerful!! You will enjoy Jonathan Welton's personal experiences as well as other's he mentions in this book, that will confirm many things you may have experienced in your walk with the Lord.

I am really enjoying this book. It is very practical and Biblically based. I am thankful for this book and the author's thoughtfulness and care in writing it.

This is a good book about seeing in the realm of the spirit. Jonathan is a seer and has seen in the spirit many times. He wants to lead us to the same place to open our spiritual sight so we can see into the unseen realm. The discerning of spirits is a true gift of the Holy Spirit and is what the seer is actually seeing. The gifts can be taught, learned and activated. God wants that to happen in our lives. This book also has a study guide at the end of the book that will help you grow more spiritually.

I really enjoy this book, because he goes back to scripture verse by verse to back up what he is saying about the Seer's gift and that it is very relevant for today. His experiences really encourage me to press in and expect to see more and hear more from the LORD! Because GOD really wants that fellowship with me! Denise Phillips
