Customer Reviews

My eight year old daughter likes me to read these books to her. The first one was a big hit. I didn't like the new concept introduced in this book of using magic to punish people. They spun a girl around, gave another weird bumps or something. In another part, the heroine refuses to admit she saw who stole something to avoid being a "snitch". My children don't naturally understand this concept. We had to have discussions as we read about things like how it is right to tell adults when you know something important or dangerous but it isn't good to tell on someone just to get them in trouble or avoid working out issues you can handle yourself. I do like the magical feelings she has, the loving connection with the cat and associated story line, and how the girls become friends in the end.

My daughter is 6 (just starting 1st grade) but an advanced reader ...so I often find it difficult to find books that are challenging enough for her but appropriate for her age. This book is both. She loves it and actually carries it around with her everywhere. At night after I read stories to them, she reads it to her 3 year old brother (from across the hall) while he falls asleep. It is a wonderful memory for them both. Great titles for young readers.

My son started reading the magic kitten books through his school library and so I looked up the ones that the library did not have. I got all the remaining ones and as he finishes reading them - we've decided to donate them to the library to round out their collection.

This book was a gift. The child adored it. It is the story of a magical white kitten with green eyes. The kitten is really a young white lion who changes into a kitten to escape foes. In this story the kitten lands in a girl's boarding school and is befriended by one of the new girls. Cute! Young girls will enjoy this story. I bought it for a 7-year old. The book arrived quickly and in perfect condition.

This was the second book of the series that my daughter is addicted to. She loves these books and has now read 8 of them, begging me to buy the next one when she hits the final chapter of the previous one. If your little girl likes cats, she'll love this series

Alondra: I like Magic Kitten because it's so funny. I like the friends of Abigail; I like Sasha and the Magic Kitty because Flame put spots on the bad girls face. Abigail didn't tell it was the Magic Kitty. Alexia: I like Magic Kitten. I like the end, because there were stars. I liked the part when the boys, of the sad part of the boys was grabbing rocks and throwing them. Jevon: I like the end because the kitty's so cute. And I like his eyes, because they're so green. Briana: I like the part when the bad girls were fighting about the homework. Annays: I like the part where he jumped to catch the butterfly, and bit his tail. Jade: I like the part when the Magic Flame is up in the tree, and she catches him. Abigail: I like Abi, she change into a ghost. And when the win the game. Ricardo: I like the part with the sparkles. Tiara: I like when they walk. I have 11 5 and 6 year olds; they enjoy a 1 chapter of Magic Kitten four days a week, and two chapters on Fridays. We apologize for any "spoilers," but it's hard to differentiate between "a review" and "a detailed synopsis" when you are only 5 years old!

My 8 year old daughters love this book so much, I'm on here ordering more from the series.

My 1st grade daughter love these books. They are easy reads and easy to follow. It keeps her interested in reading. What else could a mother ask for in a child's book series. I also enjoy reading them with her.
